Dear Sirs,

Profais Accounting Services Center is our partner providing services in the area of accounting, payroll and human resources administration.

From the very start of our cooperation, Profais demonstrated a solid and professional attitude, and great care for the customer needs. The formal tasks, such as the books and tax registers, are always performed with great accuracy.

Their customer focus, dedicated treatment of customer issues, and the competence of the Profais employees, are exemplary to any service organization.

Thanks to their proper information system and support of qualified specialists, they are always ready to provide help in solving customer problems in terms of accountancy and taxation. We always experienced a timely service, accurate completion of tasks and bookkeeping, with great attention to current tax regulations.

Definitely we can recommend Profais services, you will gain solid and trustworthy partner.

Might you require more information, I am happy to answer your request.

Yours sincerely,
